PART II. — CROSS-CLASSIFICATIONS OF THE CHARACTERISTICS OF DWELLINGS AND OF HOUSEHOLDERS

PREFACE

This publication contains particulars of the characteristics of dwellings and of householders in the Commonwealth of Australia recorded at the 1954 Census (Class of Dwelling — i.e., whether Private House, Flat, etc., — Material of Outer Walls, Number of Rooms, Number of Inmates, Nature of Occupancy, Date of Building, and Weekly Rent (Unfurnished) for Dwellings, and Sex, Age, Conjugal Condition, Period of Residence in Australia of Persons born outside Australia, Industry and Occupational Status for Householders). Information is provided for Australia as a whole and for the metropolitan urban, other urban and rural divisions of Australia in comparison with the 1947 Census and in cross-classification with other recorded characteristics. No information is given in this Part for States and Territories, except for a summary table for each characteristic. Cross-classifications of the characteristics of dwellings and of householders in each State will be found in Part IV of the respective State Volumes and of each Territory in the Territories Volume. Each State Volume contains five Parts, in three of which (Parts II, IV and V) the arrangement of Tables is identical in all essential respects with the relevant Parts (Parts I, II and III respectively) of the Australia Volume while the other two Parts provide information on population and dwellings, respectively, for all individual local government areas, irrespective of size, and non-municipal towns of 1,000 persons or more (750 in Tasmania).

This is the last Part issued of the three Parts which, together with the Statistician's Report and the Australian Life Tables, will constitute the Census Volume for Australia. Part I. — Cross-classifications of the Characteristics of the Population and Part III. — Population and Occupied Dwellings in Localities (with Geographical Co-ordinates) have already been issued while the Statistician's Report and the Australian Life Tables are in course of preparation.

Particulars relating to Tropical Australia have not been included in the detailed tables of the relevant Parts as with previous Censuses, but have been published separately.

Inside the back cover of this Part is a list of 1954 Census publications issued by this Bureau.

Explanatory Notes relative to the contents of the Part follow the Table of Contents.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

Urban and Rural Divisions (Divisions of State) — The Divisions of the Commonwealth of Australia — Metropolitan Urban, Other Urban, Rural and Migratory, as defined for Census purposes and as referred to throughout this Part, are constituted as follows:—

Metropolitan Urban : For the 1954 Census the Metropolitan Urban Division includes the statistical metropolitan areas of the capital cities of the States, and the City of Canberra the capital city of Australia.

The boundaries of each State metropolitan area are determined for Census purposes by the Statistician of the State in collaboration with the Commonwealth Statistician, and normally include the city proper and all contiguous urban areas. In order to conform to the growth of the metropolitan urban population the boundaries are reviewed prior to each Census and adjustments made, wherever necessary, to embrace contiguous urban areas that have developed since the previous Census. In this way amendments were made as from 1st January, 1954 to the boundaries of the Metropolitan Urban Divisions in New South Wales, Victoria and Tasmania.

At the 1954 Census, for the first time, the City of Canberra was included in the Metropolitan Urban Division; previously it was included in the Other Urban Division, or, as it was known at previous Censuses, the Provincial Urban Division.

As a result of these changes the area of the Division was increased by 862 square miles and the number of occupied dwellings so added, at the Census of 30th June, 1954, was 117,630. No adjustments have been made to the figures for the 1947 Census shown in this Part to permit a comparison of data for corresponding areas.

Other Urban: the Other Urban Division comprises the capital city of the Northern Territory, all separately incorporated cities and towns, irrespective of size, and all other towns with a population of 1,000 persons or more (750 in Tasmania) outside the Metropolitan Urban Divisions.

The inclusion in the Other Urban Division in 1954 of the larger towns not separately incorporated was a significant departure from the classification adopted at previous Censuses, when those towns (in all States except Tasmania) were included in the Rural Division, and the Other Urban Division (or Provincial Urban Division) was restricted to provincial separately incorporated cities and towns only. This transfer was designed to secure a more realistic subdivision of urban and rural areas outside the Metropolitan Urban Division.

Rural: The Rural Division comprises the remaining portions of each State and Territory, and is affected by the intercensal changes in the areas of the Metropolitan Urban and Other Urban Divisions. As already mentioned, the Rural Division in 1954 excludes towns of 1,000 persons or more (750 in Tasmania) which were not separately incorporated.

Migratory: This refers to persons not elsewhere enumerated who at midnight between 30th June and 1st July, 1954, were travelling on ships in Australian waters, or on long-distance trains or aircraft. Particulars of this Division, which refer to population only, are shown in Tables 2 and 32 of this Part.

Variation in the boundaries of urban and rural divisions, is a factor that must be borne in mind when making comparisons between Censuses.

Dwellings. — For the purpose of the Census, a "dwelling" is any habitation occupied by a household group living together as a domestic unit, whether comprising the whole or only part of a building. The term has, therefore, a very wide reference, and includes, in addition to houses and flats, a great variety of "dwellings" ranging from a single-roomed shack to a multi-roomed hotel or institution.

Occupied Dwellings. — Occupied Dwellings are classified into private and other dwellings.

Private Dwellings. — These comprise Private Houses (including Sheds, Huts, Garages, etc., used for dwelling purposes), Shares of Private Houses, Flats, and Rooms, Apartments, etc. In previous Censuses dwellings returned on the Schedules as sheds, huts, garages, etc. were included with private houses. In the Census of 1954 these dwellings are shown in tabulations as a separate group wherever practicable, but are linked with private houses to preserve continuity with past Census results. Separate particulars are shown in the 1947 Census publications for private houses which were shared by two or more family units and for which only one Householder's Schedule was received, but in 1954 these dwellings were included with private houses. For purposes of comparison in this Part particulars of the 1947 houses so shared are similarly treated.

Share of Private House. — A share of a private house is a portion of a shared private house which is occupied separately and for which portion a separate Householder's Schedule was furnished.

Flat. — A flat is part of a house or other building which can be completely closed off and which includes both cooking and bathing facilities.

Other Private Dwellings. — These include dwellings such as apartments, rooms, etc., which are parts of buildings but are not self-contained units.

Dwellings other than Private. — These include Hotels, Boarding Houses, Lodging Houses, Hostels, Educational, Religious and Charitable Institutions, Hospitals, Defence and Penal Establishments, Police and Fire Stations, Clubs, Staff Barracks and Quarters, etc.

Unoccupied Dwellings. — The tables in this Part, except for Nos. 1 and 2, exclude particulars of unoccupied dwellings. The term "unoccupied dwellings" is not synonymous with vacant houses and flats available for occupancy, but refers mainly to "week-end", holiday and other dwellings whose usual occupants were temporarily absent on the night of the Census. Newly-completed dwellings awaiting occupancy are also included. Examination of the geographical distribution of such "unoccupied dwellings" indicates that for the most part they were temporarily unoccupied, or located in rural areas other than towns with a population of 1,000 persons or more (750 in Tasmania).

Wagons and Camps. — This group, which includes caravans, relates to the transient habitations of itinerants and persons camping out, where occupancy is of short duration only. Particulars are excluded from all tables in this Part, except Nos. 1 and 2. This group is distinct from "Migratory" — see definition above.

Rents. — All rents shown in this Part are on an unfurnished basis. Dwellings shown as rent "Not Stated" include those whose rents were shown on Householder's Schedules on a furnished basis, and those whose rents were not applicable (e.g., for shop and dwelling combined). Rents shown for the 1954 Census are exclusive of particulars of those dwellings in each of the States which were occupied by "Tenants" (Governmental Housing); i.e., those who furnished answers in response to the instruction on the Census Householder's Schedule "Tenant paying rent to a Government Authority to write 'Tenant (G)'". However particulars for the Northern Territory and the Australian Capital Territory include rents of all tenanted dwellings, whether Governmental Housing or not. This difference in the 1954 rent particulars for the States should be borne in mind in making comparisons with previous censuses.

The broad features of this Part may be ascertained from the Table of Contents on page 2, but to facilitate reference to particular subjects an index is also provided — see end of the publication.

This Part contains particulars relating to each characteristic or dwellings and of householders obtained from the 1954 Census tabulations. However, additional information is available in some instances, but limitations of space prohibit its publication in complete detail. Such additional information relative to this Part may be obtained on inquiry from the Commonwealth Statistician.

Particulars of full-blood aborigines and of dwellings occupied solely by them are excluded throughout.
