ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION

This publication is issued each month as a supplement to the annual Catalogue of Publications and Products (Cat. no. 1101.0), which lists current Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) publications and products and gives brief descriptions (abstracts) of their contents.

A brief description of the contents of, changes to, and other information of interest about new publications and products appears at the back of this publication.

In addition, a Release Advice (Cat. no. 1105.0) is issued each Tuesday and Friday listing publications and products released on the day of issue and expected releases on the following four days. The information is also available daily on the ABS Internet service (<http://www.abs.gov.au>).

PUBLICATION PRICES

Prices include postage both within Australia and overseas.

SUBSCRIPTION SERVICE

Clients who wish to receive publications and products on a regular basis may use the ABS Subscription Service.

Clients who already use this service and who wish to change their requirements should quote their client identification number when contacting the ABS. The number is shown at the top left hand corner of the address label used to dispatch publications to clients.

When due, renewal notices are sent to all subscribers. Payments are required in advance and should accompany renewal notices returned to the ABS.

New Publications Released During August 2001

1272.0 Australian Standard Classification of Education (ASCED), 2001 ($59.00)

The Australian Standard Classification of Education (ASCED) is a new Australian standard classification and replaces the ABS Classification of Qualifications (ABSCQ). ASCED is comprised of two component classifications, Level of Education and Field of Education. It provides a basis for comparable administrative and statistical data on educational activities and attainment classified by level and field. The publication provides details of the conceptual basis of ASCED, the structure of the classification, definitions for all categories of level and field and concordances with other education classifications.

1272.0.30.001 Australian Standard Classification of Education (ASCED) and Coder, 2001 ($125.00)

The Australian Standard Classification of Education (ASCED is a new national standard classification and replaces the ABS Classification of Qualifications (ABSCQ)). ASCED is comprised of two component classifications, Level of Education and Field of Education. It provides a basis for comparable administrative and statistical data on educational activities and attainment classified by level and field. The CD-ROM provides details of the conceptual basis of ASCED, the structure of the classification, definitions for all categories of level and field and concordances to other relevant classifications.

In addition, the CD-ROM includes a Windows-based coding facility to enable users to code to Level and Field of Education in an accurate and consistent manner.

8564.0 Veterinary Services, Australia, 1999–2000 ($18.00)

Contains information about the veterinary services industry. Data includes: industry size; employment; income; expenses and industry value added, with breakdowns of key characteristics by business size and by State.

4902.0 Australian Culture and Leisure Classifications, 2001 ($42.00)

Presents three separate classifications for culture and leisure data, covering industries, occupations and products. The development of these three classifications is the first stage in the preparation of a wider framework for managing culture and leisure data. Further work planned includes developing an information model, an information plan, additional classifications and a data directory.
