NEW PUBLICATIONS AND PRODUCTS

4808.0 Illicit Drug Use, Sources of Australian Data, 2001 ($32.00)

Provides a comprehensive overview of sources of national data measuring the impact of illicit drug use in Australia. The publication examines data available on economic, social, crime and health impacts of illicit drug use on the community. Gaps in current data collections are also identified.

5673.0 Information Paper: Use of Individual Income Tax Data for Regional Statistics — Experimental Estimates for Small Areas, 1995–96 and 1996–97 ($10.00)

The ABS is undertaking an investigation into the use of Australian Taxation Office (ATO) individual income taxpayer data as a source of regional statistics to improve the range and quality of data available on regional economic activity. The main focus of this work is to produce wage and salary earner information for Statistical Local Areas (SLAs) in Australia.

A pilot project on South Australian individual taxation data showed that the regional output measures derived, when compared to Population Censusdata, were generally consistent and that the ATO Individual Taxpayer dataset is generally of acceptable quality for release for SLAs nationally. This paper defines and presents sample outputs from the ATO's individual taxpayer dataset for wage and salary earners for 1995–1996 and 1996–1997.

8140.0.55.001 Industry Concentration Statistics, Data Report — Electronic Delivery, 1999–2000

These tables show the proportion of sales, persons employed, and industry gross product that are concentrated among the 20 largest enterprise groups operating in each industry. The 'largest 20' are further subdivided by groups of four, viz first four groups, second four groups, and so on.
