INTRODUCTION

This Bulletin contains particulars of the numbers of males, females and persons, and of occupied and unoccupied dwellings in each local government area in each State of the Commonwealth, and in each district in the Northern Territory and the Australian Capital Territory, at the Census of 30th June, 1961.

The figures herein are derived from the stages reached in processing the Census returns of each State and Territory, at the end of January, 1962. For Queensland, South Australia, Western Australia, Tasmania, Northern Territory and Australian Capital Territory, they are derived from the initial balancing of the punched cards, and very little, if any, further amendment is anticipated. For New South Wales and Victoria, the figures are derived from the preliminary check of Census returns, and some minor amendments may be made in later stages.

The boundaries of local government areas for the purpose of the 1961 Census, except for two minor changes in Western Australia which became effective in April, were those in existence at 30th June, 1961.

All tables in this Bulletin exclude particulars of full-blood aboriginals and of dwellings occupied solely by them.

In accordance with standard practice, Census particulars were not required of diplomatic representatives of foreign governments and the High Commissioners representing the Governments of the members of the Commonwealth of Nations, with their families and staffs. The greater proportion of these persons was in Canberra, Australian Capital Territory, where the numbers of persons excluded from the Census was approximately 800, and the number of dwellings excluded, 200.

DEFINITIONS :

Migratory. - The term "Migratory" used in the following tables refers to persons not elsewhere enumerated who at midnight between 29th and 30th June, 1961 were on ships in Australian waters, or were travelling on long-distance trains, motor coaches or aircraft.

Dwelling. - For the purpose of the Census, a "dwelling" is any habitation occupied by a household group living together as a domestic unit, whether comprising the whole or only part of a building. The term has, therefore, a very wide reference, and includes, in addition to houses and flats, a great variety of "dwellings" ranging from a single-roomed hut to a multi-roomed hotel or institution.

Unoccupied dwellings. - "Unoccupied dwellings" include vacant dwellings available for sale or renting; dwellings such as "week-ender", "holiday home", "second home", "seasonal quarters", which were not occupied on the night of the Census; dwellings normally occupied but whose usual occupants were temporarily absent on the night of the Census; newly completed dwellings whose owners or tenants had not entered into occupation on the night of the Census; dwellings described as "condemned", "awaiting demolition", "deceased estate", "exhibition home", etc.; and buildings constructed as dwellings but used for non-dwelling purposes on the night of the Census. The total number of unoccupied dwellings shown for any area must not, therefore, be read as representing the number of vacant houses and flats available for sale or renting. Table 12 in this Bulletin shows a summary by urban and rural divisions in each State and Territory of the reasons why dwellings were unoccupied.

TABLE 8. - TASMANIA - POPULATION AND DWELLINGS : LOCAL GOVERNMENT AREAS,

CENSUS 30TH JUNE, 1961.

(Exclusive of full-blood Aboriginals and Dwellings occupied solely by them)

NOTE - The local government system in Tasmania consists of two separately incorporated Cities (Hobart and Launceston) and 47 Municipalities, which together include within their boundaries the whole area of Tasmania. The municipalities include both urban and rural areas, the former consisting of separate towns or townships as distinct from the surrounding country-side. The Tasmanian Municipalities are thus more akin to the Shires and District Councils than to the Municipalities of other States.

"N.M." indicates a Non-municipal Town with a population of 750 persons or more.

INTRODUCTION

This Bulletin contains particulars of the numbers of males, females and persons, and of occupied and unoccupied dwellings in each local government area in each State of Australia and in each district in the Northern Territory and the Australian Capital Territory, at the Census of 30th June, 1961.

The figures herein are final and supersede those published in the first edition of Census Bulletin No. 2 which was issued on 14th March, 1962.

The boundaries of local government areas for the purpose of the 1961 Census, except for two minor changes in Western Australia which became effective in April, were those in existence at 30th June, 1961.

All tables in this Bulletin exclude particulars of full-blood aboriginals and of dwellings occupied solely by them.

In accordance with standard practice, Census particulars were not required of diplomatic representatives of foreign governments and the High Commissioners representing the Governments of the members of the Commonwealth of Nations, with their families and staffs. The greater proportion of these persons was in Canberra, Australian Capital Territory, where the number of persons excluded from the Census was approximately 800, and the number of dwellings excluded, 200.

DEFINITIONS :

Migratory - The term "Migratory" used in the following tables refers to persons not elsewhere enumerated who at midnight between 29th and 30th June, 1961 were on ships in Australian waters, or were travelling on long-distance trains, motor coaches or aircraft.

Occupied dwelling - For the purpose of the Census, an "occupied dwelling" is any habitation occupied by a household group living together as a domestic unit, whether comprising the whole or only part of a building. The term has, therefore, a very wide reference, and includes, in addition to houses and flats, a great variety of "dwellings" ranging from a single-roomed hut to a multi-roomed hotel or institution.

Unoccupied dwellings - "Unoccupied dwellings" include vacant dwellings available for sale or renting; dwellings such as "week-ender", "holiday home", "second home", "seasonal quarters", which were not occupied on the night of the Census; dwellings normally occupied but whose usual occupants were temporarily absent on the night of the Census; newly completed dwellings whose owners or tenants had not entered into occupation on the night of the Census; dwellings described as "condemned", "awaiting demolition", "deceased estate", "exhibition home", etc.; and buildings constructed as dwellings but used for non-dwelling purposes on the night of the Census. The total number of unoccupied dwellings shown for any area must not, therefore, be read as representing the number of vacant houses and flats available for sale or renting. Table 12 in this Bulletin shows a summary by urban and rural divisions in each State and Territory of the reasons why dwellings were unoccupied.

NOTE - Under the system of local government in New South Wales there were, at Census date, 92 Municipalities and 133 Shires. Municipalities are usually urban in nature but some are, for Census purposes, classified as rural or partly rural. In these cases any Municipality or part of a Municipality which is regarded as rural has been clearly indicated in the table. Shires, on the other hand, are usually rural in nature, but within Shires, Non-municipal Towns of 1,000 persons or more are, for Census purposes, regarded as urban and shown separately. They are indicated in the table by the letters "N.M.". In addition, part of Lake Macquarie Shire has been included in the Newcastle Urban Area (see also Table 11) and regarded as urban.

In addition to the area covered by the local government system there was an unincorporated area of about 37,000 square miles which constituted about 11.95 per cent. of the total area of the State.

TABLE 4. - VICTORIA - POPULATION AND DWELLINGS : LOCAL GOVERNMENT AREAS,
CENSUS, 30th JUNE, 1961.

(Exclusive of full-blood Aboriginals and Dwellings occupied solely by them)

NOTE. - Under the system of local government in Victoria there were, at Census date, 71 Cities, Towns and Boroughs and 138 Shires. Cities, Towns and Boroughs are usually urban in nature, but some are, for Census purposes, classified as rural or partly rural. In these cases, any City, Town or Borough, or part thereof, which is regarded as rural has been clearly indicated in the table. Shires, on the other hand, are usually rural in nature, but within Shires, Non-municipal Towns of 1,000 persons or more are for Census purposes, regarded as urban and shown separately. They are indicated in the table by the letters "N.M.". In addition, parts of several shires have been included in urban areas (see Table 11) and regarded as urban.

In addition to the area covered by the local government system, there was an unincorporated area of 198 square miles which constituted about 0.23 per cent. of the total area of the State.
