EXPLANATORY NOTES

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE CPI

1. The CPI measures quarterly changes in the price of a 'basket' of goods and services which account for a high proportion of expenditure by the CPI population group (ie metropolitan wage and salary earner households). This 'basket' covers a wide range of goods and services, arranged in the following eight groups: food; clothing; housing; household equipment and operation; transportation; tobacco and alcohol; health and personal care; and recreation and education. Pensioners and other social welfare recipients are not included in the CPI population group and the index does not reflect concessional prices paid by these people such as subsidised government dwelling rents, public transport fares and the like.

2. The capital city indexes measure price movements over time in each city individually. They do not measure differences in retail price levels between cities.

3. Further information about the CPI is contained in a booklet entitled A Guide to the Consumer Price Index (Catalogue No. 6440.0) which is available from the ABS on request. A more detailed account is contained in The Australian Consumer Price Index, Concepts, Sources and Methods (Catalogue No. 6461.0).

PRICES

4. Prices of goods and services included in the CPI are generally collected quarterly. However, some important items are priced monthly or more frequently (e.g. bread, fresh meat and fish, fresh fruit and vegetables, petrol, alcohol and tobacco) and a small number annually (e.g. seasonal clothing, local government rates and charges).

5. In order to facilitate a more even spread of field collection workload the bulk of the items for which prices are collected quarterly are priced in the first two months of each quarter (ie July/August, October/November, January/February, April/May). With a few exceptions items priced in the third month are those subject to price changes at discrete points of time (e.g. electricity and postal charges, milk); in these cases information about any changes in price during the quarter is obtained so that an average price for the whole quarter can be calculated.

WEIGHTING PATTERN

6. There are 107 expenditure classes (that is, groupings of like items) in the eleventh series CPI and each expenditure class has its own weight, or measure of relative importance. In calculating the index, price changes for the various expenditure classes are combined using these weights.

7. Changes in the weighting pattern have been made at approximately five-yearly intervals to take account of changes in household spending patterns. The CPI now comprises eleven series of price indexes which have been linked to form a continuous series.

ANALYSIS OF CPI CHANGES

8. Movements in indexes from one period to another can be expressed either as changes in 'index points' or as percentage changes. The following example illustrates the method of calculating index points changes and percentage changes between any two periods:

All Groups CPI: Weighted average of eight capital cities

Index numbers:

June quarter 1987:	167.2 (see Table 1)
less: March quarter 1987:	164.7 (see Table 1)
Change in index points:	+2.5

$$\text{Percentage change} = \frac{2.5}{164.7} \times 100 = +1.5\%$$

9. In this publication, percentage changes are calculated to illustrate 3 different kinds of movements in index numbers:

- . movements between consecutive financial years (where the index numbers for financial years are simple averages of the quarterly index numbers),
- . movements between corresponding quarters of consecutive years, and
- . movements between consecutive quarters.

10. The All Groups index includes the effects of changes in prices for hospital and medical services. To facilitate analysis of trends in retail prices without the effects of these changes, Table 5 shows index numbers and percentage changes for a special series All Groups excluding hospital and medical services and compares these with changes in the All Groups index.

11. Table 7 provides a detailed analysis, for the weighted average of eight capital cities, of movements in the CPI since the previous quarter, including information on movements for subgroups and for selected expenditure classes. It also shows the contribution which each group and subgroup makes to the total CPI. For instance, the dairy products subgroup contributed 2.54 index points to the total All Groups index number of 167.2 for June quarter 1987. The final column shows contributions to the change in All Groups index points by each group and subgroup.

12. Table 8 provides summary information about a range of Special series in a similar format to that provided in Table 7.

13. Information on the impact of changes in selected State and local government charges on the CPI is included in Tables 3 and 8. Table 3 shows the contribution made by changes in these charges to the CPI for each capital city, while Table 8 shows index numbers for two special series 'Selected State and local government charges' and 'All Groups excluding selected State and local government charges'. An explanation of the derivation and limitations of these figures was published in the Appendix to the December quarter 1982 issue of this publication.

Symbols and other usages

- nil or rounded to zero
- n.a. not applicable

NOTE. Any discrepancies between totals and sums of components in this publication are due to rounding. For similar reasons quarterly movements shown by subgroup or group index numbers in Table 7 do not necessarily correspond exactly with those shown by the relevant index points.
